To all Perſons intereſted in the Lands herein after mentioned.

WHEREAS there is a certain lot of land, ſituate and lying in the New-Paltz patent, in the county of Ulſter and province of New-York, known and diſtinguiſhed by lot number ſix in the north diviſion (or the Cropell's lot) and bounded as follows to wit, to the north, by lot No. 7, to the ſouth by lot No. 5, to the eaſt by Hudſon's river; and to the weſt, by the commons or undivided lands, and to extend from the ſaid river three miles into the woods, according to the ranging of the ſtones ſet up in the ſides threof, of which ſaid lot of land, I the ſubſcriber am part owner. Given under my hand the twenty fourth day of Auguſt, in the year of our Lord, 1772.

48 59 JACOB DEGREMORE, Jun.

Juſt publiſhed, and to be had of the Printer hereof,

The Evidence for the Truth of Chriſtianity made plain—from Matters of Fact.

IN A

SERMON.

Preached at Norwalk, January 28th, 1770, and at Trinity Church in the City of New-York, July 5th, 1772, and at St. George's-Chapel the ſame Day.

By JEREMIAH LEAMING, A. M.

Miſſionary at Norwalk, in Connecticut, from the Society for the Propagation of the Goſpel.

To the PUBLIC.

THE above Sermon owes its Publication entirely to ſome of the Auditors, who were preſent when it was delivered from the Pulpit, and had ſuch an Opinion of its Merit, as to ſolicit the Author for a Copy to be publiſhed at their own Expence and Riſk. He has kindly granted the Requeſt: And as the Publiſhers think the Diſcourſe ſtrikingly plain, ſenſible and manly, compoſed by the Author with deep Attention to the Subject, a clear and ſtrong Perſuaſion of the Truth and Importance of the Sentiments he expreſſed, ſincerely and piouſly intended, and judiciouſly calculated to evince ſome of the great fundamental Truths of Chriſtianity in Oppoſition to the Cavils of ignorant or deſigning Men,—It is hoped the Publication—tho' it cannot convey the Sentiments with that unaffected Warmth and Propriety of Emphaſis, with which they flowed from the Preacher's Heart to thoſe of his Audience,—yet it is the ſincere Deſire of the Publiſhers, that it may afford as much Pleaſure and Advantage to the Reader, as it gave to every attentive, well diſpoſed Hearer who received it from the Mouth of the Author.

Tho' much has been ſaid and written upon this Subject before, yet ſome of the Arguments in the following Diſcourſe have not only their Weight but their Novelty to recommend them—and it may be ſaid with Propriety that they are old Truths ſet in a new Light: At leaſt the Evidence of the Facts, is put in a Light that to the Publiſhers was entirely new and convincing, and they truſt will be ſo to every Reader who deſires to know the Truth, and act conformably to it. 48—

WARSAW, June 10.

A GREAT many of the confederates are at preſent making uſe of different means for obtaining a reconciliation with the King, as well as with the Ruſſians.

Vienna, June 13. Some writings are diſperſed here, giving a detail of the rights of the houſe of Auſtria to ſeveral provinces of Poland; but the copies of them are become very ſcarce; they are clandeſtinely diſtributed, and it is difficult to procure them.

LONDON, June 9.

A committee of the privy council ſat on Friday at the Council Chamber in Whitehall, to hear Mr. Walpole and his aſſociates, on the matter of a petition for a civil Government on the Ohio, in North America; but nothing concluſive was done, as the affair ſeems very complicated, and requires a moſt careful inveſtigation.

June 11. Letters from Spain ſay, that the Governor of a principal province in America was lately brought priſoner from Lima to Cadiz, and ſtrictly guarded to Madrid.

Yeſterday the houſe of Meſſrs. Neale, James, Fordyce, and Down, Bankers, in Threadneedle-ſtreet, ſtopped payment. The acting partner, it is ſaid, is gone off with a very large ſum of money, and has entirely ſtripped the houſe of the means of immediate payment. This failure has already broke two capital merchants and is likely to involve many other families in ruin.—The other partners report, that they hope to be able to make good every demand upon the houſe.

A miſunderſtanding now ſubſiſts between the Pope and the King of Sardinia, relative to the King's refuſing to receive a Biſhop of the Pope's appointment.

Extract of a letter from Amſterdam, June 2.

" The attention of the politicians on the continent was lately engaged by a diſpute among the United Provinces, which threatened to diſſolve the union. Zealand refuſed to pay its quota; and that province was ſuſpected of a deſire to be connected with a neighbouring power. The Prince of Orange did, by his own authority, what one of the moſt determined of his predeceſſors could not accompliſh till he executed Barnevelt, and impriſoned Grotius. He gave the refractory a few days to deliberate, whether it would chooſe to be treated as an ally, or as a conquered country? it preferred the former; and the other provinces have lent it money to pay off its debts, and the contingents."

June 12. Accounts from Cairo, of the beginning of April laſt, inform us, that Ali Bey was then making the moſt formidable preparations, in order to open the campaign againſt the porte with redoubled vigour early in the ſummer.

Various are the reports relating to the conduct of one of the Partners in a great Houſe near the Royal Exchange; His enemies report that he amaſſed a very capital ſum the morning before his departure, from various people, upon the credit of the Houſe; while thoſe who are his friends aſſert no ſuch circumſtance happened, but that all matters will be ſettled in a few days, no way to the diſadvantage of his character, as, from a docket being ſtruck yeſterday morning, it appeared, the deficiency, which has been ſo much complained of, did not amount to more than thirty-four thouſand pounds. It is aſſerted that the Lady of the above Gentleman has offered to give up her whole marriage ſettlement, and all her Jewels, which are valued at a very capital ſum, to ſatisfy the demands upon her huſband.

There is now living in Ranoch in Perthſhire, Scotland, one Archibald Grunnock, Tenant to Sir Donald M'Lean, aged 112 years, who, from his good health, memory and judgment, ſeems likely to live a conſiderable time longer.

June 13. The King of Pruſſia has an army of 60,000 men in the Duchy of Cleves, which adjoins to Holland.

A letter, it is ſaid, was received at St. James's, on Wedneſday laſt, from Copenhagen, containing a refutation of all the crimes alledged againſt the young Queen, and ſigned by a great Perſonage, who avows a thorough belief of her innocence.

They write from Leghorn, that a Venetian ſquadron of great force is fitting out to cruiſe againſt the Puniſians and Algerines; the latter of whom have increaſed their Navy to 40 frigates, beſides other armed Veſſels.

June 16. Three Scotch Gentlemen have determined, if poſſible, to ſupport the Bank of Edinburgh, for which purpoſe they bind their own reſpective landed Eſtates, to the amount of 15,000l. ſterling per annum, by way of a ſecurity for 300,000l. which is to be current in London, and is to be lent by the directors of the bank of London, to three Noblemen.

On the 30th of May, in the Evening, Queen Caroline Matilda, and the Britiſh Miniſter, Sir Murray Keith, with her Majeſty's little houſhold, embarked on board the Britiſh ſhips of War. Her Majeſty was ſaluted on her departure with a triple diſcharge of 27 pieces of Cannon each ſalute. Her daughter, the Princes Louiſa Auguſta, arrived the ſame day in Copenhagen.

Extract of a letter from Stade, June 6.

" Yeſterday afternoon, at ſix o'clock, her Majeſty

the Queen of Denmark arrived here in perfect health, almoſt unexpectedly, as the wind was contrary; ſhe was received with great demonſtrations of joy by all ſorts of People. To morrow afternoon her Majeſty will proceed by land to Winſen, on the river Luhe, and from thence to Zell. The Engliſh Miniſter, Sir Robert Keith, accompanied her Majeſty as far as the Goerde, where he will ſtay a few days, return to Stade, and from thence on board an Engliſh frigate proceed to England.

"Her Majeſty was ſaluted on her arrival here with 36. 20 and 14 cannons, which were anſwered by the frigate at the Swinge, and from the walls of this city. Her Majeſty does not receive any compliments on her voyage, and it is ſaid ſhe will receive none even at Goerde, as ſhe is to reſide there only a ſhort time. As ſoon as her Majeſty went on board the Engliſh ſhip at Elſineur, the Daniſh royal flag was hoiſted."

Letters from the Hague adviſe, that an Envoy from the Emperor of Morocco is juſt arrived there, to conclude a treaty of peace between the two powers.

They write from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia intends making a perſonal viſit to the Empreſs Queen at Peterſburg, during the courſe of this ſummer.

June 18. A few days before Mr. F. the celebrated banker, abſented himſelf from buſineſs, he went to Mr. M. a very eminent Merchant, and aſked the loan of 30,000l. Mr. M. did not advance the money; and after Mr. F. had left him, he began to reflect on the circumſtance, and he grew ſomewhat ſuſpicious of F's ſituation and deſign; and at this inſtant recollecting a friend who he knew kept caſh at F's houſe, and being rather alarmed for his friend's ſafety, he luckily hit on the following admirable expedient to ſerve him: Mr. M. went to his friend, and pretended to want 8,000l. or 9,000l. His friend ſaid he had 8 000l. at F's bank, which he ſhould be welcome to, and immediately gave him a draught for the money. The draught was paid, and the next day Mr F. abſented himſelf. On this Mr M. returned his friend the 8,000l. which he had thus ſecured for him, without running the leaſt hazard of injuring Mr. F's reputation, had his ſuſpicions proved groundleſs; as, in that caſe, he would never have divulged either his doubts or his ſchemes.

Mr. Fordice's real debts are ſaid to amount to 150,000l. beſides debts of honour, or differences in the Alley, which are ſtill more conſiderable.

June 20. The Count St. Germain, having accepted of 60,000 rix-dollars, in full of all demands on the King of Denmark, is preparing to leave Denmark, and probably will go into ſome other foreign ſervice.

A gentleman from Paris aſſures us, that the French King has not appeared in public for upwards of three weeks, and that he had refuſed to ſee any of the foreign Ambaſſadors, who are obliged to tranſact their buſineſs with the Prime Miniſter.

An intimate acquaintance of Mr. Fordyce's aſſures us, that he has abſolutely failed for no leſs than 350,000l. though the ſame perſon informs us, that, to his knowledge, at a certain period, in the courſe of laſt winter, he was really worth 150,000l.

In our laſt we gave a hint to our readers, that more bankruptcies among the Bankers might be expected, ſince which (yeſterday morning) the houſe of Sir Richard Glynn and Halifax ſtopt payment, and a commiſſion of bankruptcy is iſſued out againſt them, which, it is reported, has been hurried on to prevent an extent from the Crown taking place of the commiſſion. An acceptance of Scotch bills to a very large amount, is ſaid to have occaſioned the diſtreſs of this houſe.

June 21. Mr. Fordyce's fine eſtate at Roehampton, is ſerved with an extent from the crown. He was the correſpondent of the receiver general of the land tax for Scotland, and through his hands came all the remittances of that department; now he has ſtopped payment, his acceptances have been refuſed, and on this the Crown founds a right to ſeize on his eſtate or effects.

Advices from the Hague mention that a treaty of peace between the Emperor of Morocco and the States is very near a concluſion.

Letters from Hamburgh ſay, "All our accounts from Berlin announce, that the King of Pruſſia is augmenting his troops with the greateſt expedition: Our letters from Vienna hold the ſame language; they poſitively aſſert, that orders have been iſſued for raiſing five new regiments."

It is reported that the little gambling Baronet has got in a late ſcramble, 40,000l. of the booty which a Scotch bankrupt lately diſgorged in the Alley.

No leſs than 8 capital houſes have already ſtopped payment on account of the late failure of Mr. Fordyce the banker.

One Gentleman in particular, it is ſaid, had juſt determined to retire from buſineſs with a fortune of 30,000l. but the event has proved, that he unfortunately built his caſtle in the air.

The friends of Mr Fordyce's lady, and ſome of our firſt Nobility, greatly intereſt themſelves in his misfortune, and, as he has many excellent and uſeful talents, it is imagined he will ſoon figure away again in a very reſpectable character.

A certain great bankrupt, it is now poſitively aſſerted, has ſent a letter to his partners, informing them, that his preſent intention is never to appear in England again.

Two more capital bankers are talked of as in a tottering condition; and it will be happy if the eagerneſs of the publick in general to draw upon their bankers, does not involve them into the like diſtreſs; in which caſe their over caution may tend to their own ruin, ſince it muſt be impoſſible for any of them to ſettle their whole accounts immediately upon ſo critical an occaſion.

The effects of a late bankruptcy have hitherto become every day more deploreable. One merchant in this city put an end yeſterday to his Life with a piſtol, a conſiderable ſilver refiner had recourſe to a knife, a lady is ſaid to have followed their example, and a Gentleman near Bloomſbury Square is become melancholy, by the loſſes he has ſuſtained.

Though the countenance of every perſon you met in the ſtreet yeſterday appeared clouded, occaſioned either by real diſtreſs, or what they feared for their friend's affairs. To-day ſeems to take a more favourable turn, and people hope the worſt is over.

The late cruſh here among the great perſons in trade is expected to extend to Paris, where many of the Engliſh, tempted by an intereſt of ten per cent. have lent large ſums of money, which, as they may now have occaſion to withdraw, it is feared every dealer of any note in that capital will fail.

Extract of a letter from a Merchant in Liſbon, to his correſpondent in this city, dated June 12.

"This day Mr. —— ſtopped payment; that houſe was till now looked upon as the moſt capital houſe in this city, but I believe his connections with ſome houſes in France, which have lately failed, is the principal cauſe of it. We expect ſeveral more to do the like, having been taken in by our complaiſant friends the French. I have ſent this by the firſt ſhip that ſailed, that you might have early intelligence, and thereby be guarded againſt accepting ſuch bills as I have told you are doubtful."

June 22. By letters received from Conſtantinople we are informed, that the Chief Mufti had been ſtrangled there, he being ſuſpected of having held a correſpondence with the Ruſſians.

A correſpondent obſerves, that as Blacks are free now in this country, Gentlemen will not be ſo fond of bringing them here as they uſed to be, it being computed that there are about 14000 blacks in this country, a great number of whom were in Weſtminſter hall yeſterday morning to hear the determination of their cauſe and went away greatly pleaſed.

Extract of a letter from Rome, dated May 22.

"My deſign is to inform you of the ceremony of a late marriage, which was as great as that of a Prince indeed. The Chevalier, with Lord C——ll, and five ſervants, left Rome incog. and went to Macerati, from whence Lord C——ll ſet out for Loretto, where he received the Princeſs, an amiable Lady of twenty years of age: He brought her to Macerati, and ſtayed there till Eaſter Sunday at night, when they ſet out for the the palace of Count de Sapada, whoſe brother is in the Chevalier's ſervice, and the next day arrived in Rome. Their entry into Rome was as follows: Firſt, four Couriers—Chevalier's poſt chaſe—then the Princeſs coach and ſix, followed by two other poſt chaiſes—the Chevalier and the Princeſs in their coach, followed by two other coaches and ſix with their attendants—then two coaches and ſix with the Cardinal's attendants. The concourſe of people at the cavalcade was really ſurpriſing. Cardinal York paid a viſit to the Princeſs next morning, had a conference with her of an hour, and made her a preſent of a gold ſnuff-box, ſet with diamonds of great value; but the outſide, beautiful as it is, was nothing in compariſon of the beauty within; it contained an order upon his banker for 40,000 Roman crowns, nearly equal to 10,000 ſterling, with a ſettlement of 4000l. a year upon her. What think you of this affair? A race of Pretenders may ariſe, which will never end as long as the world laſts.——

"Honi ſoit qui maly penſe."

June 24. Laſt week advice was received that three Ruſſian ſhips of war paſſed the Sound; we are now enabled to give a further account of them. The name of the firſt is the Orlow; the ſecond Cheſme; and the third Poboda; they are all bound for the Mediterranean, but not one of them is either half manned, or half provided with naval ſtores.

Beſides the Gentleman who cut his throat in conſequence of his loſſes by a late failure, we are informed that two others, who loſt almoſt their all by the ſame means, were ſo diſturbed in mind that one of them abſconded, and has not been ſince heard of, and that the other threw himſelf out of a two pair of ſtairs window, and was ſo much hurt he has lain ſpeechleſs ever ſince.

Yeſterday afternoon, about five o'clock, a late Banker's Clerk drowned himſelf in a pond at Hampſtead. He went into a public houſe and drank two glaſſes of brandy, for which he paid ſix pence, refuſing any change; he then walked out, mounted the bridge, and was obſerved to prepare twice for jumping in, but as often his heart failed him; however, the third time he took the fatal leap, and was drowned. He was not found till ſix o'clock this morning, when ſeveral bank notes were found upon him.

June 27. So great is the general diſtruſt of each other in the mercantile world, that great quantities of goods that were ſhipped, have been this week again unſhipped, and landed on the keys. If ſome ſtop is not taken to place the public credit on its uſual footing, what muſt be the iſſue but an almoſt general bankruptcy in the commercial circle at leaſt.

One gentleman drew out 60,000l. on Tueſday laſt from a great banker; and on his apologizing for drawing for ſo great a ſum at once, and proteſting it was for no other reaſon but to anſwer an immediate emergency in a conſiderable purchaſe, the banker replied, "Sir, no apology is neceſſary, we are glad to ſee our friends at their demanding as paying in their money, and ſhall certainly continue to do ſo."

We believe it is not in the annals of the Gazette, that ever two Aldermen of the city of London appeared therein before Tueſday laſt at one time it) two ever did at all) in the liſt of bankrupts.

A private letter from the Hague concludes thus: "The people of this country have not for many years experienced ſuch a ſcarcity of money as at preſent. The great loans lately negotiated have drained the rich of their money, and the heavy taxes have almoſt ruined the middling ſort."

We hear from the Hague, that a Ruſſian Nobleman, of great diſtinction, is now there, negotiating a loan for the ſervice of the Empreſs.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, June 23.

"The letters from Saxony cannot find terms to expreſs the extreme degree of miſery and want that prevails in that electorate, eſpecially towards the mountains, where whole villages are deſerted by their inhabitants, in queſt of food, and the immediate neceſſaries of life.

They write from Paris, of the 22d inſtant, that Prince Stuart and his youngeſt brother arrived at Fountainbleau the 20th, and were very cordially received by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

It is aſſerted, that the Queen of Denmark will be in England in a few months, and reſide here till the ſpring, when ſhe will return to Hanover, accompanied by ſeveral perſons of diſtinction of both ſexes.

A correſpondent ſays, a ſtrong puſh is intended to be made for electing Mr. Wilkes to the Mayoralty for next year,

Extract of a leter from Vienna, dated May 2.

"We hear from Comoru in Hungary, a frotreſs on the Danube, that on the 20th of April laſt, a ſhip arrived from Peſt at Comoru, which is about 180 Engliſh miles, againſt the ſtream, effected by a machine which was worked within-ſide the ſaid ſhip. There were twenty four ſoldiers expreſly appointed to work this engine; twelve did duty at a time, and were relieved by the other twelve every half hour. It is the invention of Father Poda, a Jeſuit, who is the ſame perſon that lately invented an automaton, or wheel carriage, that travelled at a great rate without horſes."

July 1. They write from Brunſwick, that ſome grand apartments in the Duke's Palace there, are ordered to be fitted up immediately, which hath cauſed many conjectures; but it is generally believed that they are for the reception of the Queen Dowager of Denmark and Prince Frederick, who have declared their deſire of ſpending a few weeks there as ſoon as all affairs are ſettled at Copenhagen.

They write from Madrid, that a number of Jeſuits, to the amount of 170 perſons, were ſeized by order of the Government, in a Convent of the Carmelites, at Almanza, on the ſecond inſt. and impriſoned. Some of the principals are already condemned to die.

July 2. The Scots paper (the Edinburgh Advertiſer of June 26) which arrived yeſterday morning, has the following intelligence:

Since our laſt, the following ſequeſtrations have been applied for to the Court of ſeſſions, in terms of the new bankrupt-act, viz. Meſſrs. Fordyce, Malcolm and Co. Mr. William Anderſon is appointed factor; Meſſrs. Johnſtone and Smith, Merchants here; Mr. Robert Trotter, writer, factor. A ſequeſtration has alſo been applied for Meſſrs. Francis Garbet and Charles Gaſcoigne, of the Carron Warff, in the county of Stirling; Mr. George Home, clerk to the Signet, factor.—The houſes alſo of Meſſrs. William Alexander and Son, Meſſrs. Gibſon and Balfour, and Meſſrs Andrew Sinclair and Co. have ſtopped payment: and this morning the Air bank have circulated an advertiſement, of which the following is a copy:

Air, June 25, 1772.

THE Company of DOUGLAS, and CO. bankers in Air, taking into conſideration the preſent ſtate of the credit of this country, and the uncommon demands that have been made upon them for ſpecie, owing to cauſes ſufficiently well known, have come to a reſolution to give over, for ſome time, paying ſpecie for their notes. But as the country, who have received the moſt liberal aids from this company, cannot entertain the ſmalleſt doubt of the ſolidity of its foundation, it is hoped, that on occaſion of a natural emergency of this kind, the holders of their notes will not be under any alarm.

And, in order to give full ſatisfaction to the publick, that no perſon will be a loſer who is in poſſeſſion of their paper, they hereby declare, that they will pay five per cent. intereſt for ſuch of their notes as remain in the circle, until paid, after the 26th of June current; and that a bond to that purpoſe ſhall directly be executed by their caſhier, binding the company, and be put on record in the books of ſeſſion.

For Douglas, Heron, and Co.

JOHN CHRISTIAN, Caſhier.

Since the publication of the above, many of the Merchants and ſhopkeepers here, have declared their willingneſs to accept of the notes of this company in payment as formerly.

It is not remembered by the oldeſt perſon, that ſo great a calamity in the way of trade as the preſent bankruptcies, has ever happened in Scotland. The affair of Darien, the end of laſt century, was a heavy ſtroke to the little credit that ſubſiſted at that period in this part of the iſland; but as the landed intereſt was then conjoined with the mercantile, it was the more ſupportable to the trading part of the nation. The diſſolution of the Scots African or Darien company, was generally attributed to the Engliſh Eaſt-India company, to whom they ſell a ſacrafice. The South Sea Scheme (and we may add the charitable corporation) which like a deluge overwhelmed South Britain, hardly reached this remote corner, which had not been fully recovered from the loſſes of its African company. The preſent calamity is owing to ſeveral concurring circumſtances, the chief of which is generally reckoned to be a pernicious practice, that has been increaſing for ſome years, and which of late has been carried to a great hight, that of drawing bills on London on fictitious credit, for the purpoſe of raiſing money.

Yeſterday the poll finally ended at Guildhall for Sheriffs; when the numbers were, for Alderman Oliver 1586, Mr. Lewes 1327, for Alderman Plumbe 762. This day, at one o'clock, the Sheriffs caſt up the books of the poll, and then delivered in the numbers to the court of Aldermen.

Extract of a letter from Edinburgh, June 20.

"The Duke of Argyle, Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces in Scotland, the Judges of the Court of Seſſion, the Faculty of Advocates, Clerks to the Signet, moſt of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of diſtinction, and Merchants in this country, have declared their determined reſolution to accept of the notes of Douglas, Heron and Co. in all payments as uſual, ſo that the credit of this moſt reſpectable bank, founded upon the beſt ſecurity in this country, will remain unſhaken, notwithſtanding the diſrepute that the publick credit of this country at preſent labours under, from cauſes which this bank could neither foreſee or prevent.

"I can likewiſe aſſure you that Douglas, Heron and Co continue to pay their notes at the town of Air, which is the ſeat of the bank of the place where their notes are payable, their paying them hitherto at this place, being a matter of mere favour and accommodation to the publick. and what they were by no means under any legal obligation to do."

BOSTON, Auguſt 24.

Richard Harriſon, Eſq; having been appointed Deputy Collector for the port of Boſton, on Tueſday laſt took the oaths, and officiates at the Cuſtom-Houſe.

We hear John Butler, Eſq; of Halifax, is appointed Agent Victualler and Pay Maſter to his Majeſty's forces in Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, in the room of the Hon. Benjamin Gerriſh, Eſq; lately deceaſed in England.

Laſt Friday afternoon a melancholy accident happened at Charleſtown, Mr. Jabez Whittemore and wife of that town, returning home in a chaiſe from attending lecture, were croſs met by a man in a ſulkey, who driving very furiouſly overſet Mr. Whittemore's chaiſe, whereby Mrs. Whittemore was inſtantly killed, and Mr. Whittemore ſo greatly bruiſed, that we hear 'tis at preſent uncertain whether he will recover. The fellow was committed to Charleſtown gaol the ſame evening.

The Saturday night when the thunder and lightning were ſo ſevere, as has been mentioned, a low houſe near Kelly's ferry in Warren was ſtruck, a man that was ſtanding at the door was drove to the fire place, where he lay for ſome time ſenſeleſs, but recovered without receiving any hurt. The lightning ſhivered the poſt of a bed ſtead which was in the room, and killed a dog under the bed; two children were aſleep in the bed the ſame time, but were not awaked by the thunder, nor received the leaſt harm.—The lightning was very ſharp at Newport and places adjacent; it ſet a large ſtack of hay and ſeveral ſtacks of wheat on fire at Narraganſet, and entirely conſumed them.

A barn full of grain, belonging to Mr. Woodruff of Farmington was ſet on fire by lightning, and entirely conſumed.

Letters from London, by the Packet, make mention of between 30 and 40 failures in England and Scotland, which has occaſioned great confuſion, and had brought trade into great difficulties; and that many perſons have made away with themſelves.

Extract of a letter from London, dated July 2.

"The great Negro cauſe was determined a few days ago, and the conſequence was, the negro obtained his freedom. The poor fellow was preſent in the court at the deciſion, as were likewiſe a great many other blacks, all of whom, as ſoon as Lord Mansfield had delivered the opinion of the court, came forward, and bowed firſt to the Judges, and then to the bar, with ſymptoms of the moſt extravagant joy. Who can help admiring the genius of that government, which thus diſpenſes freedom to all around it? No ſtation or character is above the law, nor is any beneath its protection. The Monarch and the Beggar are alike ſubject to it. "pauperum Tabernæ Regumque Turres," are equally guarded by it.

Extract of a Letter from Ireland, dated June 1, 1772.

"The Law in force reſpecting Flaxſeed, has rendered the Sales of that Article very precarious, there having been a Verdict againſt Mr. Uſher, of Dublin, for the Value of £.3 per Hogſhead, on 30 Hogſheads, becauſe it did not produce a ſufficient crop.—A Precedent which makes that Trade very dangerous: For Inſtance, I ſuppoſe 100 Hogſheads of Flaxſeed, to be conſigned to me; I ſell them, and the Seed, either from the Badneſs of the Seaſon, improper Culture, or Soil, doth not grow; then I am liable to an Action for its Value, and the £.3 per Hogſhead more. Pray how am I to recover the Freight (and £.3 per Hogſhead) from my Employers?"

On the 21ſt Ult. a Proclamation was iſſued by his Excellency the Governor, declaring his Majeſty's Diſallowance of the three following Acts of the Legiſlature of this Province, paſſed in 1770 and 1771. which are therefore declared to be void and of none Effect, viz.

POET'S CORNER.

A CAUTION to the LADIES.

LET the nymph ſtill avoid and be deaf to the ſwain,
Who in tranſports of paſſion affects to complain;
For his rage, not his love, in that phrenſy is ſhewn,
And the blaſt that roars loudeſt is ſooneſt o'er blown.
But the ſhepherd whom cupid has pierc'd to the heart,
Will ſubmiſſive adore and rejoice in the ſmart;
Or in plaintive ſoft murmurs, his boſom felt woe,
Like the ſmooth gliding ſtream of deep rivers will flow.
'Tho' ſilent his tongue, he will plead with his eyes,
And his heart own your ſway in a tribute of ſighs;
But when he accoſts you in meadow or grove,
His tale is all tenderneſs, rapture and love.'

Reſpected Friends,

WE have now to inform you, that our new Partner John Dearman, on Account of his prior private Tranſactions, is render'd incapable of performing any Part of his Agreements with us, whereon we grounded our Partnerſhip, and therefore we have thought fit to diſſolve and put an End to ſuch Partnerſhip, as if it had never exiſted; and we give you Notice, that the Buſineſs will be carried on in future, under the old Firm of Robert and John Murray; and all Goods bought of and ſent by you, or any other Matter done in the Names of Murray, Dearman, and Murray, you are to tranſfer to the Account of Robert and John Murray (as they take upon themſelves all the Accounts of Murray, Dearman and Murray) whoſe Orders in future you will pleaſe only to follow.

We are your aſſured Friends,
ROBERT and JOHN MURRAY,
JOHN DEARMAN.

WHEREAS the Partnerſhip of Murray, Dearman, and Murray, is diſſolved: This is to acquaint the Public, That the Buſineſs of ſaid Houſe is now carried on as formerly, by Robert Murray, of London, and John Murray, of New-York, under the Firm of Robert and John Murray, in both Places. They would alſo acquaint the Public in general, and their Cuſtomers in particular, That their Store in the City of New-York is removed from the Houſe between Beekman's and Burling's-Slips, to that formerly occupied by Mr. William Butler, near the upper End of the Fly-Market, and but a few Doors Eaſtward from the Treaſury Office. 47 52

Ready money given for old pewter, braſs, or lead, or the ſame taken in payment for work. BATH,

IN which is a Room properly conſtructed to undreſs and dreſs in, with a Stair-Caſe leading into the Bathing Room, where Perſons of either Sex may bathe in Salt-Water, in the greateſt Privacy; and for thoſe that chooſe to ſwim off into deeper Water, a Door is ſo placed in the Bath, that they can conveniently go out and return.

The Building is near the End of a Wharf oppoſite to the Bay: This Bath will be more beneficial, as at about two miles Diſtance is a Mineral Water, ſimilar to the German Spaw, which hath proved of the greateſt Efficacy in many Diſorders; its proper Diſtance procuring moderate Exerciſe after bathing, has proved in many Inſtances very aſſiſtant to the Medicinal Quality of the Waters; which with great Succeſs have been directed, after bathing in Sea Water. The Qualities of this Spaw, have been well examined by ſeveral Phyſicians of Ability, and frequently recommended by them, particularly by the preſent Doctor Johnſton, as well as his Father.

John Keating,
AT HIS PAPER MANUFACTORIES,
At and near New-York, makes

ALL ſorts of paper and paſte board, viz.

Brown, whited brown, Blue, and grey } Waſte or wrapping paper, different ſizes,
Purple ſugar loaf, Cartridge and preſs } Paper
Printing and writing paper of various ſorts and ſizes
Paſte board of all qualities and ſizes

Which are to be ſold at the loweſt prices, at his ſtore in Queen-ſtreet, near Burling's-ſlip, where he gives the beſt prices for Linen Rags, according to their quality and fineneſs.

When it is conſidered that the above paper and other articles manufactured here, make a clear ſaving to this country or all the money that would have been ſent out to purchaſe them from abroad, it is hoped that all thoſe who really wiſh to promote the intereſt of America, and of this country in particular, with which their own intereſt is cloſely connected, will contribute their aid to the ſucceſs of this undertaking, which cannot be effectually done without a conſtant care in ſaving and ſupplying him with thoſe linen rags, which are generally deſtroyed or thrown away as uſeleſs, tho' they are abſolutely neceſſary to a paper manufactory, which cannot be carried on without them.

To add to the difficulty of procuring a ſufficiency of rags, conſiderable quantities have been collected here and ſent to other colonies, whereby their manufactories have been ſupplied, to the injury of our own, with this material article: And tho' the legiſlature have not yet thought proper to prohibit the exportation of it, yet it is hoped a due regard to their own intereſt will incline the inhabitants of this country to ſupply a manufactory among themſelves, preferably to thoſe of another colony.

N. B. Good encouragement will be given to journeymen paper-makers. 33—

LONDON,

June 15. The Lords of the treaſury are ſaid to have reſolved, that the houſes of Ambaſſadors ſhall no longer be ſacred againſt the viſitation of Cuſtom-houſe Officers. "It is more decent (ſaid Lord N—) that they ſhould apply to us for protection, than that we ſhould aſk their permiſſion to execute the laws; and Cromwell himſelf was never more anxious for the dignity of the Engliſh name than I am determined to be, if I continue in the ſervice of his Majeſty."

Lord Valentia now ſtands in the moſt extraordinary ſituation of any man in the Britiſh Empire: he is a baſtard in England, and the legitimate ſon of his father in Ireland. Two tribunals, each ſupreme in its deciſion on the queſtion of his different Peerages, have adopted different opinions with reſpect to the validity of his titles; and he now remains either one of the moſt lucky or one of the moſt unfortunate members of the community.

All the ſervants of her Majeſty's houſhold, and all the ſervants of their Royal Highneſſes the Dukes of Glouceſter and Cumberland, and the Princeſs Amelia, have received their ſalaries in full to the laſt quarter day.

Purſuant to his Majeſty's orders, Doctors Jebb and Adair have received handſome preſents for their care of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter's health while on his travels in Italy.

Extract of a letter from Warſaw, May 27.

"On Sunday evening the famous Confederate Zaremba, accompanied by many Ruſſians, arrived in this city; his Huſſars have been incorporated among the Ruſſian troops, but the reſt of his corps, conſiſting of near 1800 men, are gone to the general Confederacy: However, it is thought that Pulawſky will ſoon follow Zaremba's example, and ſurrender. Yeſterday Zaremba dined with the Ruſſian Miniſter, and he will be preſented to his Poliſh Majeſty in a few Days. The Ruſſian Miniſter has this day received an expreſs from Peterſburgh, with particular diſpatches, which are kept very ſecret."

Authentick letters from Paris declare, that the Sieur Dionis, Member of the Academy at Bourdeaux, has lately invented a veſſel to be rowed with eight oars under Water, and that the perſons in the boat are prevented ſuffocation by means of a kind of ætherial liquor, which (when the vital air is become unfit for reſpiration by the cloſeneſs of its confinement) reſtores it to its original ſalutary ſtate, by diſſipating the groſſer exhalations, and throwing them, through a ſpital tube, into the water. An experiment was made, on the 28th of laſt month, with this extraordinary machine, which, we are aſſured, with ten Perſons in it, was navigated four hours and a half under water in the Bay of Biſcay, during which time it proceeded five leagues, without any of the parties receiving the leaſt ſupport from the common air.

It is very confidently reported, that Sir George Macartney will ſhortly be created a Peer of Ireland, in addition to his other Honours, and as a reward for his diligent and unwearied Services for the good of his Country.

It is ſaid that Lord N. in a viſit to the bank, aſked the Directors, why they would not diſcount the Scotch bills? One of them aſked his Lordſhip, To what amount he thought they ought to diſcount? He replied, That at leaſt, they might venture at 50 or 60 cool. The Director rejoined immediately, What will your Lordſhip ſay, when we have actually diſcounted bills to the ſum of 300,000l? Nay, then, ſaid his Lordſhip, I have nothing to ſay, and left them.

The day before Mr. Fordyce ſtopped payment, he called on a banker who is a Quaker, of whom he deſired the lone of 20,0000l. On being refuſed and going away diſſatisfied, the latter called him back, and ſaid, "Harkee. friend, Two Dice have hurt many a one, but, I promiſe thee, Four-dice ſhall never ruin me."

A Correſpondent ſays, "That a perfect reconciliation is now effected between all the popular Gentlemen in the city, except Alderman Townſend and Wilkes, which it is feared, will not be ſpeedily be brought about."

June 23. There are letters which deſcribe the Imperial army at preſent conſiſting of 140,000 men complete, well diſciplined, and ready to act on a week's previous notice.

Letters from Bourdeaux ſay, that a great embarkation of troops, proviſions and ammunition of all kinds, is making for North-America.

The ſpeculations of a Scotch Banker, who lately failed, we are told, were not confined ſolely to the Alley. In the ſcramble for hops laſt year, it is ſaid, he gambled ſo deep, that he loſt no leſs than 50 cool. by that commodity.

Two more capital bankers are publickly talked of as in a tottering condition.

A certain Dutch houſe, ſaid to be the firſt in Europe, was on Saturday reported to have ſtopped payment..

So general is the deſolation ſpread among the trade by the late failure of the bankers, that no leſs than twenty carriages of merchants were ſent to Long-acre laſt Saturday to be ſold.

The public prints have made Lord Harcourt chief Governor of Ireland, and of courſe diſplaced Lord Townſhend; what is whimſical enough, however, the King has neither done the one nor the other, or the change would have been announced in the Gazette, among the other intimations communicated by authority.

The apprehenſion of freſh failures become hourly ſtronger and ſtronger. On Saturday laſt the Bank ſat for ſeveral hours upon the paper of a ſingle houſe, and it is ſaid that unleſs 150,000l. is diſcounted for this houſe, a ſtop muſt be the inevitable conſequence.

The relations of a certain Banker have, we hear, loſt their all by his failure, having placed it confidently in his hands, and deemed themſelves happy at having five per cent. from ſuch indubitable ſecurity.

June 30. Douglas, Heron, and Co. bankers in Aire, have given notice in the Edinburgh Advertiſer, that the uncommon demand made upon them for ſpecie, having obliged them to come to the reſolution to give over for ſome time paying ſpecie for their notes, they will pay five per cent. intereſt for ſuch of their notes as remain in the circle, until paid, after the 26th day of June.

Three perſons of the firſt diſtinction in Scotland, are now raiſing large ſums of money on their private eſtates, by granting on any ſingle life 100l. annuities at the rate of ſeven years purchaſe, or on two lives for eight years: But the purchaſers are informed that it is expected they ſhall have the liberty of redeeming ſuch annuities at any time, on paying the full purchaſe money with half a year's annuity.

Notice is hereby given, that all bills drawn by Meſſrs. Bell, Cookſon, Carr, Widdrington, and Saint, (proprietors of the Newcaſtle bank) upon Meſſrs. Glyn and Halifax, will be diſcharged as they become due, by Mr. John Cookſon, at Meſſrs. Caſtell, Whately and Powell's, in Lombard-ſtreet; and all bills for acceptance are deſired to be brought.

We are aſſured that commotions, inſtead of ſubſiding, are hourly augmenting at a certain northern Court, in ſo much as to threaten the final diſſolution of that Monarch.

A correſpondent remarks that it has been for ſome time obſerved, that the trade for Scotch cloth has been much leſs than uſual; and, upon examination, it is found that the cloth made in that kingdom, has for a few years paſt been converted into paper, and exported to England in that ſhape, to the much greater emolument of the Scotch merchants than when it was brought here from their linen manufactory; and can we blame the ambition of the prudent Scotchman, who thinks it a more reſpectable ſituation to ſtay in his own country in the character of a banker, than to travel up to London on foot as a Scotch pedlar.

The two celebrated perſonages, Mr. James Stephen, and Mr. Fordyce the banker, were ſchoolfellows in Scotland. Stephen had the management of ſome works at Poole, ſeveral years under Sir John Webb, and it is thought Mr. Fordyce's expedition that way was planned by Stephen. A meſſenger was diſpatched to Poole two days before Mr. Fordyce's departure, who hired a packet by the day, by way of a pleaſure boat, to entertain ſome Gentlemen from London, whoſe arrival was uncertain. Mr. Fordyce went on board immediately after he had taken a little refreſhment, and his trunks were carried betwixt two men, and appeared remarkably heavy. The Captain of the veſſel declared on his return, that he had never made a more beneficial voyage. This account is related by a Gentleman who ſaw him at Poole, and declares that he has ſince met a Gentleman in the ſtreets of London, who accompanied Mr. Fordyce over to Cherbourg, but is not acquainted with his name.

CHARLES-TOWN, (South-Carolina) July 23.

Almoſt every evening for this week, we have had ſudden and violent thunder guſts, with ſevere lightning, which have done damage at different places. ——Monday evening the brig Charming Betſy, Noble Hinman, maſter, lying in Aſhley river, was ſtruck with one flaſh, which killed a hired negro, (whoſe owner is not yet diſcovered) and much hurt three ſeamen between decks, and did a good deal of damage above, melting the pitch, forcing the oakum out of the ſeams, and ſhivering the ſpars to ſplinters, &c.

The brig Pompey, John Healy, maſter, from New-York for St. Auguſtine, was ſpoke with, paſſing by this Bar, laſt Saturday, all well on board.

As ſeveral hundred bags of cotton, and a very conſiderable quantity of indico have recently been found among the Bahama Keys, 'tis ſuppoſed ſome French veſſels from Hiſpaniola have been wrecked upon them. They had advice at Providence of one ſhip, but the wreckers had not found her ten days ago.

On the 1ſt inſtant the ſhip Hibbert, a three decker, of about 600 tons, John Boyd, maſter, from Jamaica for London, laden with rum, ſugar, &c. was caſt aſhore among the Florida Keys. The Captain (with two paſſengers, Captain Barry, of Barbados, and one Mr. Graham) arrived at Providence the 14th, and hired veſſels to ſave as much of the cargo as poſſible, as the ſhip had not gone to pieces.

A ſnow from Jamaica for England, has alſo been found among the ſame Keys, deſerted by her people, the names therefore not known.

Yeſterday put into this port, the ſhip Newmarket, of and for London from Jamaica, Joſeph Barker, maſter, in want of water and other neceſſaries, having been aſhore upon the Bahama Bank, near the Membro Rocks, to get her off which, they were obliged to heave overboard 36 hogſheads of ſugar, 70 puncheons of rum, ſome ſuſtick, logwood, and many other articles, with all their water, except one caſk.

And as a further inducement, he will engage his work for a year after it is delivered, that is, if any part gives way or fails by fair usage, he will make it good at his own expence. Those advantages cannot be obtained on carriages imported. He has now a considerable stock of the best of all materials fit for making carriages—For the above reasons, he most humbly requests the encouragement of the publick, which will be most gratefully acknowledged by him.

Said DEANE paints and repairs all manner of old work very reasonably; and has for sale, just finished, a new phæton, and four new chairs. 39 64

The Stage sets out from Brooklyn Ferry, with Passengers, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon of Monday, and that Night puts up at Samuel Nicoll's, on Hempstead Plains, where a Waggon will be ready for their Reception on Tuesday Morning, to carry them to Epinetus Smith's, at Smith-Town, and there exchange Passengers; and then proceed to Benjamin Havens's, at St. George's Manor; and on Wednesday Morning will set out from thence for Sag Harbour, where a Packet Boat will be ready to carry all Passengers to New-London. Likewise Stages are established in the different Towns in Connecticut and Rhode-Island Governments, to carry Travellers to Boston. Terms for Passage, are as follow.

From Brooklyn Ferry to Samuel Nicoll's, 4s. each Person.
